Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation

Results of Operations

Significant accounting policies

The consolidated financial statements of the Isuzu group are prepared in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles of Japan. In the preparation of these statements, the amounts recorded for items including bad debt allowance, inventory, investments, income taxes, retirement benefits, and provisions for product warranties are estimates that reflect the judgment of management. Because of the uncertain nature of estimates, in some cases actual results may vary from initial estimates, and this may have a negative impact on earnings results.

Sales

In fiscal 2005 (ended March 31, 2005) Isuzu's consolidated-basis sales rose 4.4% from the previous year to ¥1,493,567 million, as worldwide vehicle unit sales increased 20.9% to 339,162 units.

Although the Japanese economy made a gradual recovery on improved capital expenditure and corporate earnings trends, the outlook was clouded in the second half by rising raw material prices and the impact of yen appreciation. In the commercial vehicle market, overall demand for standard trucks declined 15.0% from the previous fiscal year to 99,584 units and demand for 2–3 ton trucks fell a sharp 22.4% to 114,176 units as demand associated with the introduction of new emissions regulations ran its course. In this environment, Isuzu gained market share through aggressive sales initiatives to capture 27.4% share of the standard truck market (up 2.5 percentage points from the previous year) and 38.4% share of the 2–3 ton truck market, an increase of 2.3 percentage points from the previous year. As a result, domestic sales declined a marginal 0.3% to ¥625,749 million.

Sales in Asia grew 11.3% from the previous fiscal year to ¥374,172 million from the impact of consolidating Thai manufacturing operations including Isuzu Motors Co., (Thailand) Ltd. and brisk sales in China and the ASEAN region where Isuzu pioneered its business ahead of competitors. In the Thai market, where pickup trucks account for around 60% of the total, Isuzu pickup trucks held 38% market share, sustaining steady sales growth despite intensifying competition.

North American sales fell 15.0% to ¥213,901 million as we withdrew from local SUV production and shifted emphasis to profit.

Sales in other regions grew a sharp 30.0% to ¥279,744 million, mainly because of increasing exports of pickup trucks produced in Thailand to other regions.

Operating income

Operating income for fiscal 2005 was a record ¥87,214 million, up 3.2% from a year earlier. Rationalization, including raw material expense reduction, contributed ¥12,600 million, consolidation of manufacturing operations in Thailand added ¥5,000 million, and lower depreciation and other expense cuts had a ¥4,000 million positive impact on operating income, offset against ¥12,700 million negative impact from increased expenses, ¥3,800 million from a worsening sales mix, and ¥2,400 million due to foreign exchange fluctuations.

Looking at each of our key business areas, operating income at the parent company declined ¥6,400 million from the previous year to ¥60,500 million, because rationalization such as raw material cost savings and expense cuts could not fully compensate for a fall in gross profit on lower domestic vehicle sales and increases in raw materials prices, and selling and R&D expenses.

Consolidated sales subsidiaries in Japan posted an operating income of ¥6,000 million, down ¥1,500 million from the previous year. Lower domestic demand weighed on profits despite efforts to improve efficiency such as reviewing sales bases.

In North America, the operating loss shrank ¥1,000 million to ¥400 million as a result of progress with structural reform, including withdrawal from local SUV production.

In ASEAN, operating income grew ¥8,000 million to ¥15,200 million due largely to the consolidation of Thai manufacturing operations and sustained brisk pickup truck sales in Thailand.

(The figures shown for each of our key business areas above reflect the simple addition of the profits and losses of the parent company and consolidated subsidiaries, grouped according to the characteristics of each unit.)

As a result, our operating margin contracted 0.1 percentage point from 5.9% in fiscal 2004 to 5.8% in fiscal 2005.

Note: operating income yen amounts are then rounded down in thousands

Business Areas Segment Information — Operating Income

Non-operating gains/losses

In fiscal 2005 we posted a non-operating profit of ¥4,340 million, an improvement of ¥7,152 million from the previous year.

Equity-method profit increased ¥5,449 million to ¥15,811 million because of continuing strong performance of engine manufacturing operations in North America and Poland (both equity-method companies) and group companies in Japan.

Progress with reduction of interest-bearing debt resulted in a ¥700 million improvement in net interest (interest received minus interest paid) to ¥10,500 million. We posted a foreign exchange gain of ¥500 million in fiscal 2005, an improvement of ¥2,700 million from fiscal 2004.

Extraordinary gains/losses

In fiscal 2004, we posted an extraordinary loss of ¥26,321 million, mainly associated with the overhaul of our domestic sales network such as disposal of fixed assets in the process of adjustments to our real estate holdings, and the restructuring of our North American business. In fiscal 2005, the extraordinary loss improved ¥3,532 million to ¥22,788 million. Main extraordinary loss items were associated with consolidation and reorganization of the domestic sales network and disposal of fixed assets accompanying the relocation of the Kawasaki plant.

Taxes

In fiscal 2004, Isuzu's net tax expense, including corporate income taxes, municipal taxes, and business taxes and after adjustments was a ¥77 million gain, but in fiscal 2005 it was a net expense of ¥6,245 million because of increased corporate tax payments at the parent and ASEAN subsidiaries.

Minority Interests

Minority interests consist primarily of profits returned to the minority shareholders of our locally incorporated subsidiaries in ASEAN and North America. The figure increased from ¥720 million on fiscal 2004 to ¥2,484 million in fiscal 2005.

Net Profit

In fiscal 2005 our net profit was ¥60,037 million, an increase of ¥5,324 million from the prior year. Earnings per share came to ¥56.64 and fully diluted earnings per share to ¥25.79.

Segment information

Japan

In Japan, there was a reactionary decline in overall demand after a sharp increase in the previous fiscal year due to the introduction of stricter diesel emissions rules. Nonetheless, domestic sales increased 2.1% from a year earlier to ¥1,087,862 million because of strong growth in export sales. However operating profit declined 5.5% to ¥72,931 million, despite sustained streamlining and fixed expense reduction efforts undertaken under our New Three-Year Business Plan.

North America

North American sales fell 14.7% to ¥200,888 million, largely attributable to the withdrawal from local SUV production. Our North American operating loss narrowed from the previous year's ¥688 million to ¥229 million despite costs incurred by the withdrawal.

Asia

Sales in Asia surged 41.2% to ¥296,598 million chiefly due to brisk sales of our pickup trucks in Thailand. The D-MAX pickup truck launched in May 2002 remains the best-selling vehicle ever in Thailand. Operating profit also grew 124.4% to ¥14,082 million.

Other regions

Sales in other regions grew 27.9% to ¥33,192 million as a result of marketing activities in Australia, but operating profit fell 5.5% to ¥1,322 million.

Financial Condition

Cash Flow

In fiscal 2005 Isuzu generated net cash flow of ¥135,252 million, up ¥32,672 million from the prior year. Despite a higher net income before taxes, net cash provided by operating activities declined ¥19,761 million from a year earlier to ¥65,531 million because of an increase in equity-level investment profit and corporate tax payments, and temporary increase in accounts receivable primarily associated with Thai manufacturing operations becoming consolidated subsidiaries.

Net cash used in investing activities declined ¥2,127 million to ¥7,795 million. Capital investments made mainly by the parent company and operations in the ASEAN region were offset by ¥11,319 million of inflows from the sale of investment securities and ¥16,865 million from the sale of fixed assets.

Net cash used in financing activities declined ¥2,631 million to ¥26,366 million. While we used cash generated by operating activities as a resource in our continued effort to shrink liabilities, we also redeemed ¥60,000 million of class 2 preferred stock during the fiscal year. Revenue-wise we raised ¥100,000 million for R&D and capital investment from our second unsecured convertible bond issue. Isuzu also restructured its borrowings in February 2005 by repaying all existing loans and signing a syndicated loan agreement consisting of a ¥240,000 million term loan and ¥62,000 million commitment line to secure liquidity.

Assets

As of March 31, 2005, total consolidated assets were ¥1,142,580 million, an increase of ¥64,763 million from a year earlier.

Main factors contributing to the increase were cash reserves, which grew ¥26,042 million from ¥113,315 million to ¥139,357 million, notes and accounts receivable (up ¥31,810 million from ¥216,934 million to ¥248,744 million), inventory (up ¥11,588 million from ¥112,938 million to ¥124,526 million), and tangible fixed assets (up ¥9,482 million from ¥449,131 million to ¥458,613 million). Cash reserves increased because of cash flow from operating activities resulting from record profits and strengthened cash management structure, while increases in notes and accounts receivable, inventory, and tangible fixed assets were mainly associated with the consolidation of manufacturing operations in Thailand.

The ¥5,118 million decline in long-term borrowings from ¥27,409 million to ¥22,291 million is also mainly attributed to the offset and elimination of the outstanding loan balance of newly consolidated Thai manufacturing operations in the consolidated accounts.

Liabilities

Total liabilities increased ¥4,997 million from a year earlier to ¥969,928 million. Interest-bearing liabilities (total of short-term borrowings, commercial paper, corporate bonds with less than a year to redemption, corporate bonds, and long-term borrowings) decreased ¥53,561 million from ¥446,664 million to ¥393,103 million.

In fiscal 2005 we concluded a syndicated loan agreement consisting of a ¥240,000 million term loan and ¥62,000 million commitment line to ensure liquidity after repaying all of our existing borrowings. This led to a sharp decrease in short-term borrowings and an increase in long-term borrowings.

The balance of our second unsecured convertible bond stood at ¥56,000 million on March 31, 2005, adding ¥50,000 million to our liabilities compared with the previous fiscal year.

Capital

In fiscal 2005, our capital grew ¥48,710 million to ¥158,463 million.

Although ¥60,000 million of class 2 preferred stock was redeemed during the fiscal year, ¥60,037 million of net profit was generated in addition to the exercise of ¥50,000 million of convertible bonds increasing capital by the same amount. Consequently our equity ratio improved 3.7 percentage points from a year earlier to 13.9%.

Risks

In 2002, in response to the protracted slump in the Japanese commercial vehicle market and lackluster SUV sales in the U.S., the Isuzu group drew up its New Three-Year Business Plan covering the three-year period to March 2005 to restore corporate value and strengthen corporate competitiveness. In the interim period ended September 2002, Isuzu showed a temporary negative net worth due to the poor performance of its subsidiaries. However, thanks to steps taken under the New Three-Year Business Plan, such as a private placement of new shares and the exchange of debt for equity, the company showed a positive net worth again in March 2003. In fiscal 2005, the final year of the plan, we continued our efforts to strengthen business functions and shore up our profit structure. Being well on track to achieving our goals, in November 2004 we formulated a new business plan ending in March 2008, and approved the resumption of dividend payments at the 103rd annual general meeting of shareholders on June 29, 2005. However, there are certain risks that could have significant impact on our earnings results, financial condition, or share price, and these risks are outlined below. (The following information contains forward-looking statements that reflect the judgment of management as of March 31, 2005).

1. Economic situation/supply and demand trends in our major markets

Vehicles account for an important portion of the Isuzu group's worldwide operating revenue, and demand for these vehicles is affected by the economic situation in the various countries and regions and markets where we sell vehicles. Therefore, economic recession and an ensuing decline in demand in our major markets—Japan, North America, and other Asian countries—could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group. Price competition also entails the risk of price fluctuation for our products.

2. Interest rate fluctuations

The Isuzu group tightened its cash flow management and continues to concentrate on shrinking interest-bearing debt. Under the New Three-Year Business Plan, we allocated profit from business operations and other funds to the reduction of interest-bearing debt, whose balance stood at ¥393,103 million (excluding convertible bonds) at the end of fiscal 2005—¥53,561 million less than a year earlier. This is still a relatively large balance, however, leaving us vulnerable to the risk of higher interest payments having a negative impact on earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group should market rates rise sharply.

3. Foreign exchange fluctuations

The business of the Isuzu group includes manufacturing and marketing products in several regions around the world. Local currency amounts for sales, expenses, assets and other items are therefore converted into Japanese yen in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements. Depending on the exchange rate in effect at the time of conversion, the yen amount for these items may change even if the underlying local currency value has not changed. Generally, a strengthening of the yen relative to other currencies has a negative impact on the business of the Isuzu group, and a weakening of the yen has a positive impact.

4. Dependence on General Motors Corporation and other major customers

The Isuzu group supplies vehicles and vehicle components to General Motors Corporation (Detroit, MI) and its affiliates as well as to other vehicle manufacturers on an OEM basis. Sales to these customers are affected by fluctuations in production and sales at these customer companies and other factors over which the Isuzu group has no control, and therefore they could have a negative effect on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

5. Suppliers, subcontractors, etc., of parts and materials

The Isuzu group sources the raw materials, components, and products required for production from outside suppliers. Should supply-demand conditions significantly exceed suppliers' capacity, it is possible that we are unable to source sufficient volume. Shortages of, and delays in the supply of parts, etc., could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

6. Product defects

At its plants both inside and outside of Japan, the Isuzu group manufactures its products according to the strictest globally accepted quality control standards. However, in the unusual event of a large-scale recall or product liability award, there could be a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

7. Joint ventures

The Isuzu group engages in business in some countries in the form of joint ventures due to legal and other requirements of each country. Changes in management policy, operating environment, etc., of these joint ventures can affect their earnings performance, which could produce a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

8. Disasters, power outages, and other interruptions

To minimize the potential of a negative impact due to an interruption in the manufacturing process, the Isuzu group regularly conducts disaster prevention inspections and facilities examinations at all of our sites. However, we may not be able to completely eliminate or minimize the impact that would arise from a disaster, power outage, or other interruption during the manufacturing process.

9. Securities investments

The Isuzu group invests in securities to produce, sell, and distribute its products as well as to build and maintain good relationships with its business partners. For marketable securities, a downturn in share prices could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group. Isuzu provides management guidance and advice to companies—including those in which we have invested through non-marketable securities—that can have a strong influence over our own business results. However, if the financial condition of the companies in which we have invested were to deteriorate due to factors such as a worsening business environment, this could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

10. Retirement obligations and deferred tax assets

The figures recorded for "retirement obligations" and "deferred tax assets" are estimates that reflect the judgment of management. Because of the uncertain nature of estimates, in some cases actual results may vary from initial estimates, and this could have a negative impact on earnings results.

11. Potential risks associated with international activities and foreign ventures

The Isuzu group conducts some of its manufacturing and marketing activities outside of Japan—in the U.S. and in developing and emerging markets in Asia. The following risks are inherent to such overseas business development, and could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

- Unfavorable changes in the political or business climate
- Difficulties in recruiting and retaining personnel
- Inadequate technological infrastructure could have a negative impact on our manufacturing activities or on our customers' support of our products and services.
- Potential negative tax consequences
- Social unrest stemming from terrorism, war or other factors.

12. Limits on intellectual property protection

The Isuzu group has accumulated technology and expertise that differentiates us from our rivals; however, in certain regions due to legal restrictions we are unable to fully protect or we are able to only partly protect some of our proprietary technology and expertise through intellectual property rights. As a result, we may be unable to effectively prevent third parties from using our intellectual property to make similar products.

13. Legal requirements

The Isuzu group is subject to various government regulations in the countries in which it does business, such as business and investment approvals, export controls designed to protect national security, and other import/export regulations such as tariff rules. We are also subject to legal requirements concerning areas such as commerce, antitrust, patents, consumer rights, taxation, foreign exchange, recycling and safety. Unexpected changes in these regulations could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group. Exhaust emissions regulations are generally being tightened amid growing environmental awareness. Since substantial investment is required to comply with these regulations, failure to generate sufficient sales to recover this investment could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

14. Impairment accounting

The Isuzu group owns and leases facilities used in manufacturing, marketing and distributing our products. Japan is preparing to introduce impairment accounting for fixed assets used in the course of business, and if it becomes necessary to treat some fixed assets that are owned or used through finance leases as impaired, this could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

15. Sale of Kawasaki Plant property

We have been notified of a claim for damages stemming from soil contamination of natural origin at a parcel of property at our Kawasaki plant location, which we sold in July 2001 to the Urban Renaissance Agency, an independent administrative institution. Depending on the course of this claim, this could have a negative impact on the earnings and financial position of the Isuzu group.

16. Preferred shares

Isuzu issued preferred shares on December 26, 2002. These shares could be exchanged for common shares at some time in the future, and this could result in the dilution of the existing common shares.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Basis of Presenting The Financial Statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Isuzu Motors Limited ("the Company") and consolidated subsidiaries are prepared on the basis of accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, which are different in certain respects as to application and disclosure requirement of International Financial Reporting Standards, and are compiled from the consolidated financial statements prepared by the Company as required by the Securities and Exchange Law of Japan. In addition, the notes to the consolidated financial statements include information which is not required under accounting principles generally accepted in Japan but is presented herein as additional information.

In order to facilitate the understanding of readers outside Japan, certain reclassifications have been made to the consolidated financial statements prepared for domestic purposes and relevant notes and statements of stockholders' equity and statements of cash flows have been added.

The yen amounts are rounded down in millions. Therefore, total or subtotal amounts do not correspond with the aggregation of such account balances.

U.S. dollar amounts have been translated from Japanese yen for convenience only at the rate of ¥107.39=US$1, the approximate exchange rate prevailing on the Tokyo Foreign Exchange Market on March 31, 2005. The translations should not be construed as a representation that Japanese yen have been or could be converted into U.S. dollars at that rate. The U.S. dollar amounts are then rounded down in thousands.

Certain reclassifications have been made in the 2004 and 2003 financial statements to conform to the presentation for 2005.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and significant subsidiaries. All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Investments in main unconsolidated subsidiary and significant affiliated companies (15% to 50% owned) are accounted for by the equity method.

The differences at the time of acquisition between the cost and underlying net equity of investments in consolidated subsidiaries and in unconsolidated subsidiaries and affiliated companies accounted for under the equity method are, as a rule, amortized over periods of five years after appropriate adjustments.

b) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company has adopted the Financial Accounting Standard for Foreign Currency Transactions in Japan effective from April 1, 2000.

Based on the accounting principle, foreign currency transaction adjustments are recorded in "Equity" or "Minority Interest".

c) Securities

The accounting standard for financial instruments requires that securities be classified into three categories: trading, held-to-maturity or other securities.

Marketable securities classified as other securities are carried at fair value with changes in unrealized holding gain or loss, net of the applicable income taxes, included directly in stockholders' equity. Non-marketable securities classified as other securities are carried at cost. Cost of securities sold is determined by the moving average method.

d) Inventories

Inventories of the Company are valued at cost using the periodic average method. Inventories of consolidated subsidiaries are principally valued at cost using the specific identification method.

e) Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is principally computed by the straight-line method over the applicable useful lives.

f) Software costs

Software used by the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries is depreciated using the straight-line method, based on the useful life as determined by the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries (generally 5 years).

g) Leases

Finance lease transactions, except for those which meet the conditions that the ownership of the lease assets is substantially transferred to the lessee, are accounted for on a basis similar to ordinary rental transactions.

h) Employees' Retirement Benefits

Employees' retirement benefits covering all employees are provided through an unfunded lump-sum benefit plan and a funded pension plan. Under the plans, eligible employees are entitled, under most circumstances, to severance payments based on compensation at the time of severance and years of service.

The Company has adopted the Financial Accounting Standard for retirement benefits in Japan. In accordance with this standard, accrued employees' retirement benefits have been provided mainly at an amount calculated based on the retirement benefit obligation and the fair value of the pension plan assets adjusted for unrecognized actuarial gain or loss.

i) Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for on an accrual basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect of deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rate are recognized in income in the period that includes the enacted date.

j) Net Income per Share

Net income per share of common stock is based upon the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each year. Under the revised financial statements regulations in Japan, the weighted average number of shares is calculated based on the number of issued shares less the number of treasury stocks from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2002.

Effective from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003, the Company applied early adoption of the Financial Accounting Standard No. 2 "Financial Accounting Standard for Earnings per Share" and the Financial Accounting Standard Implementation Guidance No. 4 "Implementation Guidance for Accounting Standard for Earnings per Share" issued by the Accounting Standards Board of Japan on September 25, 2002.

Basis for the calculation of net income per share at the year ended March 31, 2005 is as follows:

	Millions of yen	Thousands of U.S. dollars
Net Income	¥ 60,037	$ 559,058
Less: Components not pertaining to common shareholders:
Bonuses to directors and corporate auditors	15	142

Common stock (share):	953,762,418	953,762,418
Class IV preferred stock (share):	95,693,780	95,693,780

k) Appropriation of Retained Earning

Appropriations of retained earnings are recorded in the financial year in which the appropriation is approved by the Board of Directors or shareholders.

l) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Reconciliation for cash and cash equivalents at end of year on the statement of cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2005 is as follows:

	Millions of yen	Thousands of U.S. dollars
Cash and time deposits on the consolidated balance sheet	¥ 139,357	$ 1,297,676

Report of Independent Auditors

To The Board of Directors
Isuzu Motors Limited

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Isuzu Motors Limited and consolidated subsidiaries as of March 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, all expressed in yen. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Isuzu Motors Limited and consolidated subsidiaries at March 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

The U.S. dollar amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements with respect to the year ended March 31, 2005 are presented solely for convenience. Our audit also included the translation of yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, in our opinion, such translation has been made on the basis described in Note 1.
