

Educational vehicles donated to junior colleges & vocational school in Tokai & Hokuriku regions

Isuzu Motors Tokaihokuriku (Nagoya-shi, Aichi Prefecture), Isuzu Motors Sales (Shinagawa-ku, Tokyo) and Isuzu donated small-sized trucks (Japanese name: Elf) and a medium-sized truck (Japanese name: Forward) to junior colleges and a vocational school in the Tokai and Hokuriku regions as educational materials for pupils on their auto mechanic training courses to improve their knowledge and mechanical skills.

It is hoped that exposing the pupils to the very latest vehicles will help to nurture competent engineers in the future.

Recipient Institution	Vehicle	Date of Donation
Aichi School of Automotive Engineering (Ama-gun, Aichi Prefecture)	Elf	July 19, 2016
Nakanihon Automotive College (Kamo-gun, Gifu Prefecture)	Elf	July 7, 2016
Aichi University of Technology Automotive Junior College (Gamagori-shi, Aichi Prefecture)	Forward	June 21, 2016
Takayama College of Car Technology (Takayama-shi, Gifu Prefecture)	Elf	May 20, 2016

Pupils with the donated vehicles (Left: Aichi University of Technology Automotive Junior College, Right: Aichi School of Automotive Engineering)